Referee class levels: Must renew every 2 years for NRC Accreditation and every 4 years with NRC referee qualification. Experiences must be recorded in the NRC logbook or NRC log sheet and verified. Events must be sanctioned by the TA National or the TA state affiliated State Referee committees.

C –class Club judge	This level is introduced to qualify blue belts of age 14 years and above. This qualification will qualify members to corner judge tournaments at internal club level tournaments only (ie a tournament that does not include other clubs).
IC –class Inter-club Judge	This level is introduced to qualify red belts of age 15 years and above. This also includes black belts of age 15 to 18 years. This qualification will qualify members to corner judge tournaments at inter club level tournaments and is a bridging course to become NRC referee officials. A Club class judge can apply for IC class upon reaching red belt if the qualification is achieved within 2 years.
4 th class State Judge	Minimum holder of 1 st dan black belt aged 18 years and over. Must pass course requirements. Those who can demonstrate recent pass level requirements from C class can apply for credit towards 4 th class referee qualifications, but course attendance is still required, if not done within 2 years. Qualifies referees to officiate at state level tournaments as a corner judge. NRC accreditation renewal requirements: Must demonstrate participation in at least 2 sanctioned events as corner judge and attended 1 refresher course within 2 year period.
3 rd class State Referee	Must have satisfactorily judged at least 4 sanctioned tournament events after obtaining 4 th class referee. Must have passage of a minimum of 1 year since obtaining 4 th class. Must have the minimum rank of 1 st dan. Must pass course requirements. Qualifies referees to officiate as referee and corner judge at all state level tournaments, and as corner judge at national events. Experienced 3 rd class referees can be considered to referee colour belts and junior black belts at national level events. NRC accreditation renewal requirements: Must demonstrate participation in at least 2 sanctioned tournaments or 8 simulation events or equivalent combination of tournament or simulation events as referee and 1 refresher course attended within 2 year period.
2 nd class National Referee	Must have a minimum rank of 2 nd dan. Must have satisfactorily refereed and judged at least 8 sanctioned tournament events after obtaining 3 rd class, and satisfactorily refreshed at 2 referee courses or seminars. Must have participated at state simulation events as referee in at least 4 simulation sessions. Must pass course requirements. Must have passage of a minimum of 2 years since obtaining 3 rd class. Qualifies referees to referee and corner judge at all state level and national level tournaments. Eligible to referee and corner judge at national selection level tournaments. NRC accreditation renewal requirements: Must demonstrate participation in at least 2 sanctioned tournaments or 8 simulation events or equivalent combination of tournament or simulation events as referee and 1 refresher course attended within 2 year period.
1 st class Senior National Referee	Must have the minimum rank of 3 rd dan. Must have satisfactorily refereed and judged at least 12 sanctioned tournament events after obtaining 2 nd class referee, and satisfactorily completed 3 sanctioned referee courses or seminars. Must have participated at state simulation events as referee in at least 6 simulation sessions since obtaining 2 nd class. Must have officiated at least 1 national level and 1 national selection event. Must pass course requirements. Must have passage of a minimum of 3 years since obtaining 2 nd class. Qualifies referees to referee and corner judge at all state, national level and national selection level tournaments. Qualifies referees to be eligible to attend international level referee courses and qualify as an international referee. NRC accreditation renewal requirements: Must demonstrate participation in at least 2 sanctioned tournaments or 8 simulation events or equivalent combination of tournament or simulation events as referee and 1 refresher course attended within 2 year period.
